

USING IMAGES ACROSS THE CURRICULUM: RESOURCES FROM THE MEMORIAL ART GALLERY

Search the Gallery's collection database to find over 4,000 images covering 5,000 years of world art.

Browse the database by grade level, curriculum connection, and subject.

<http://magart.rochester.edu>

The screenshot shows the Memorial Art Gallery website interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with links: COLLECTION, EDUCATION, EVENTS, EXHIBITIONS, JOIN, LISTEN, SHOP, SUPPORT, VISIT. The main content area is titled 'PRE-COLUMBIAN ART' and shows a grid of search results. Each result includes a small image and a caption with details like 'Jaguar Deity Pectoral', 'Eagle Pendant', 'Seated Dog Vessel', and 'Seated Figure with Turtle Carapace Drum'. A sidebar on the left contains search filters and navigation options like 'QUICK SEARCH', 'ADVANCED SEARCH', and 'EXPLORE THE COLLECTION'. The footer includes contact information and a copyright notice for 2002-2008.

The screenshot shows the 'SCHOOL PROGRAMS' page on the Memorial Art Gallery website. The page features a header with the gallery's name and navigation links. Below the header, there is a section titled 'SCHOOL PROGRAMS' with a sub-section 'ART WORKS!'. The text describes the gallery's commitment to enhancing student learning and lists several resources: guided tours, lesson plans and classroom activities, a teacher's guide for 'Tradition in Transition', and professional development workshops. A sidebar on the left lists other educational resources like 'ART LIBRARY', 'CREATIVE WORKSHOP', and 'TEACHER RESOURCE CENTER'. The footer contains contact information and a copyright notice for 2002-2008.

Sign up for docent-led tours, download lesson plans & classroom activities, learn about resources in the Teacher Resource Center & find out about inservices on the School Programs page of our website.

<http://mag.rochester.edu/teachers/>